Subject: [EXTERNAL] Barge for Molokai once a week is a no!!

Aloha

Molokai is a small island. Our stores don't look like Walmart or target or food land and wholesfoods etc. so why would puc ever approve this even for 30 days. Our stores don't have big enough freezers to old once a week shipments A"ole.

If this happens the seniors elderly will suffer, the poor will suffer, families with many kids will suffer. This can't be happening. We will face price gouging and then people are going to run out of money.

Then we will have people robbing and taking things. We won't have a safe community. It will be awful.

Why do this to us? You all need to go back to your drawing boards weigh out the pros and cons.

Getting food once a week will not save lives it will increase crime.

Mahalo nui
